Mike Koles, Wisconsin Towns Association, Executive Director

9:15 – 10:00am THE LONG AND WINDING ROAD (PDH'S 0.5)

The number of town transportation funding sources and the amount of money in each has substantially expanded in recent years. Maximizing your investment requires that towns take advantage of the right program for the right road maintenance application at the right time. This program will help you discern what is right.

Daniel J. Fedderly P.E.;P.L.S. DJ Fedderly Management Consultant LLC/Paladin Project Management Group LLC

10:00 – 10:30am TRANSPORTATION SERVICE PROVIDER SPOTLIGHT (PDH's 0.5)

This session will feature Subsurface, Inc. Joe Baratka will highlight their "no dig" culvert maintenance products that save time, money, and significantly extend culvert lifespan.

10:30 – 11:15am NETWORKING INTERSECTION

Take a break and visit the Town Transportation Service Providers in the Vendor Exhibit Area.

11:15am – 12:00pm THE LRIP PILOT PROGRAM: WHAT'S NEXT? (PDH's 1.0)

Local Road Improvement Program funding and circumstances have significantly and abruptly changed; however, the rules undergirding the program have largely remained the same for three decades. Learn about a pilot program being conducted for towns in the northwest and west central portion of the state and how that will inform a possible future update to LRIP that could impact you. Panel Discussion:

Mike Koles, WTA Executive Director & Gary Kennedy, Partner, Paladin Project Management Group LLC

12:00 – 1:30pm LUNCH

Sauteed chicken breast, lightly dusted with Italian herbs, frilled, and topped with Parmesan and marinara. Served over fettuccine.

1:30 – 2:15pm TRANSPORTATION SERVICE PROVIDER SPOTLIGHT (PDH's 0.5)

This session will feature Delmore Consulting. Jeff Delmore, President, will highlight the company's core town services, including culvert and sign inventory and inspection and PASER rating.

2:15 – 3:15pm LEGISLATIVE REVIEW: WHAT'S IN IT FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENT?

The 2023-24 Wisconsin legislative session has come to a close. What happened? What didn't happen? What might happen in the future?

Joe Ruth, WTA Government Affairs Director & Dan Bahr, WCA Government Affairs Associate

3:30 – 5:00pm TRANSPORTATION SERVICE PROVIDERS RECEPTION

Welcome and introduction to local government transportation service providers complete with hors d'oeuvres and refreshments.

5:00 – 6:00pm WTA TRANSPORTATION SERVICE PROVIDERS AUCTION

Have a ball and support the WTA Scholarship Fund through your engagement in this live auction. Participation can of course be through bidding, but we also encourage local governments to donate items for the auction.
